

LINE

By

Michael Basinski

Inspired by Line Book by W. R. H.

One long sound for one voice. The voice is encouraged to engage the cult of poet as inspired idiot prior to first breathe. Could be arranged for multiple voices as band of idiots. Consume air or gulp air at double letters only. Must create sound on air intake. Audience is encouraged to shout Failure! or Fraud! or Freud! if the line of sound is broken or there is an imagination that it broke. Or just for fun or to be antagonistic. If broke, the liner must begin again. The line is over when the line is performed accurately start to finish. Orchestrate tone, tempo, pitch etc. to taste.
